*“The Best Bed
for Better Sleep”*

Special Needs, & Therapist testimonials (call for therapeutic use & more info):

“William LOVES his Floating Bed. He sleeps better requiring less intervention. He is able to learn quicker and for longer periods of time. It has changed our lives.” - Hannah Brill, founder, Williamsworldautism.com

“With its gentle, shared vestibular stimulation, the Floating Bed offers an indescribably relaxing, comforting, and unifying experience, even with no physical touch at all ... it has to be experienced to be believed. If you have a child with an autism-spectrum condition who isn't sleeping through the night; if you & a loved one have difficulty having relaxed, focused conversation together; if you're personally suffering from insomnia, Ménière's disease, or vertigo; or if you're simply looking for the most restful, renewing sleep you've ever experienced, you've got to try one out. Think of the Floating Bed as a vestibular therapy, learning platform, unconventional sofa, and unbelievably comfortable bed all rolled into one.

- Matthew McNatt, director, McNatt Learning Center www.mcmattlearningcenter.com

“The Floating Bed has aided individuals with sensory issues by allowing the autistic child to escape during the therapy we conduct for "time outs" when he is feeling overwhelmed or over anxious.”

- Meg Swearingin OT

“Our son is 7, severely autistic. Sleeping 4-6 hours per day, 2 hours at a time, was beginning to take its toll on our entire family. The Floating Bed saved our lives! The gentle rocking motion allows him to sleep longer periods of time as the movement gently rocks him back to sleep! We couldn't do it without the Floating Bed.” - Christopher Lofland

“The Floating Bed is great for allowing me to interact effectively with my severely autistic patient. It provides a calm gentle area for us to be able to conduct our therapy sessions with less frustration and anxiety. Thank you Floating Bed!” - Kelsey Villavazo-Autism caregiver

Hi, my (autistic) son Trent has been enjoying his Floating Bed for over a year now and he is sleeping better than ever! He used to wake up 7-10 times a night and now he always sleeps 7 hours straight!

Thanks, Laura C.

Testimonials from customers & owners:

"The floating bed always sends me into a deep, calm slumber. I miss it when I am away, and always look forward to its gentle rocking when I return home."

- Woody Harrelson, Actor and Health Advocate

"So what is your favorite part of your home makeover?" - Senator Diane Feinstein.

"My Floating Bed!" - 5 year old Ashley (on ABC's Extreme Makeover, Home Edition).

"This is really nice! And relaxing, I gotta be honest."

- Steve Schirripa, The Jay Leno Show

Best sleep of my life! Didn't need to read or watch ipad, just rocked. Didn't move position from 10 PM – 6 AM. Incredible! – Aricia Halley, first night sleeping in her new Floating Bed.

The floating bed is dream of both parents & kids. It's instant child care! Now when we have a party the adults can actually have time together. The kids will stay on the bed the whole party. It's strong too-indestructable. " - Grace S., Northern California

"I received an unexpected side benefit after sleeping in it for 2 weeks my life-long motion sickness was cured, even though at first I was afraid to even get in it because my sensitivity was so acute. Now I sleep in it every night and I am in love with the sensation."

-- Pati S., Fairfield, Iowa

"What a great new way to sleep and relax."

-Mike Love, The Beach Boys

You have made my dream come true! That's a huge accomplishment. Thank you for having the creative mind it takes to come up with such a wonderful invention. I love it. -Meg, Orange Co, CA.

Besides the improved rest, The Floating Bed provides something especially important to neurological development; movement. The effects of movement on the brain have been studied extensively. Some of the the benefits are diminished pain, greater mind body coordination, improved balance, and higher cognitive function. Since the nervous system is affected directly, everything gets better. The beauty of this is that unlike most things in life, these benefits come passively without any work. You just lie down on it, and the bed does it for you. Sleeping in it, people achieve deeper restfulness than with stationary beds. Aside from all the technical information, did I mention how much fun it is?"

-Dr. Jonathan R., Chiropractor, Santa Rosa, CA

Our clients love the Floating Beds, and the room they are in has become the most sought after in the whole Spa. The beds give the dreamy feel our clients love to let go into, and the benefits of the rocking movement are clearly evident - most people fall asleep and even it's for 20 minutes, they wake feeling totally refreshed and blissed out".

– Marina, Water Garden Spa, manager

“Best night sleep of my life! Didn't need to read or watch iPad, just rocked. Didn't move position from 10 PM – 6 AM. Incredible!!!”

- Aricia H, after her first night sleeping in her Floating Bed.

“Everything about this place was stunning. The amenities, hospitality, the privacy and the heavenly scenery. The finishing touch on this magical place however, was the Floating Bed. I have never seen anything like it. It was like being rocked to sleep in the arms of God. “

Topia Inn, reviews on Trip Advisor

1. “The Floating Bed was Amazing. The room I booked was the Hawaiian Room with a Floating Bed. I was skeptical at first but ended up having the best sleep I have ever had in years. I can't wait to go back.”

- mikefahn Sept 22, 2010 TripAdvisor Review. 5 of 5 stars.

2. “We stayed in the Aloha room, and are now looking into purchasing a Floating Bed, because the bed itself promotes relaxation--you cannot possibly be angry, intense, or anything other than relaxed and happy in that bed, and why shouldn't you have a retreat in your own home?”
- brownwolfe, June 2011, TripAdvisor, 5 stars
3. “My boyfriend and I were lucky enough to stay in the Aloha room with its amaaazing Floating Bed! I was really excited for this and it ended up everything I hoped. Amazingly comfortable and I slept like a rock.” - roselilli, March 2011, TripAdvisor, 5 stars
4. I stayed in the Aloha room because I wanted to try out the Floating Bed. It was so comfortable!!!
- anonymous, B&B.com, May 2011
5. I am jealous I didn't book the Aloha room, so if you are reading this and thinking of staying here, yes it is a little more money per night, but you get to sleep on a suspended/Floating Bed! You heard me right! ... the Aloha room has a giant hammock-like Floating Bed that sways based on your body movements. We were lucky enough to see this awesome room before the guests checked in, but man was I jealous!
Sarah G, Boston, Nov 2010, Yelp
6. We stayed in the Aloha Room with the Floating Bed. It was the best sleep I have ever had. When I returned home, I could no longer sleep in mt static bed.
-scre (& partner, as a couple), Boston, Oct 2011
7. An absolutely relaxing, rejuvenating, and reinvigorating stay, this B&B was an absolute delight over our New Years getaway weekend! My wife & I are snobs about where we stay, & this stay lived up to our standards & requirements. We stayed in the Aloha Room with the Floating Bed which was a unique take on sleeping in a suspended state. - shivaswrath, CT, Jan 2012
8. My boyfriend and I stayed in the Aloha Room for 2 nights and loved it! We look forward to coming back again! -eileenmarie421
- 9.. The Aloha room was pure heaven! – rosannet106

Berkshire Magazine review:

Among the inn’s signature features are eight guest rooms designed by different artists, the most popular being the Aloha Room. Decorated by dancer Lisa Viola, the room’s centerpiece is a Queen-size “Floating Bed” suspended from the ceiling.

“The bed was just ridiculously comfortable; it gently rocked me to sleep,” says Eric Schlesinger, who stayed in the room with his girlfriend for a weekend getaway.
